

Summer Greetings from Oiseau Bay!

Summer's come early and what a beautiful season it's been so far on the shores of the Ottawa River at Oiseau Bay!

If you haven't already planned that extra summer getaway that this season is surely calling for, now's the time. We thought we'd send over some of what we'll be up to this season, and let you know of our availability for planning your next trip to visit us. We'll also include some special deals for those on our mailing list!

Thanks for reading, and the biggest compliment you could give us would be to pass this message along. Happy summer!

What's new this summer?

You asked for it... Rest your body after an active day (and enjoy a mojito!) in the new patio furniture on the porches.

Extend the party! The dock has been extended with lots more seating to accommodate your sunset gatherings—drop a line in to catch the evening's appetizer!

For the kids: A new swim raft will provide hours of entertainment.

Green thumbs We're undertaking our most ambitious heritage garden to date! Enjoy vegetables in season, and dig in!

Official opening of the new trail to Oiseau Rock

-July 9, 10, and 11, 2010—don't miss it! A great "paddle-in" opportunity

The Department of Cultural Development of the Pontiac has created a beautiful new park and hike trail to the top of Oiseau Rock. If you don't know Oiseau Rock, it's just down river of us and is a spectacular natural formation that you can reach by an enjoyable hike, with breathtaking views of the Valley and a spring-fed lake at the summit for swimming and picnicking.

For the weekend, the Ottawa River will be symbolically renamed Kichi Sipi (Great River in Algonquin) to commemorate river travel. There will be music, events, and more. Paddle in for a true Kichi Sipi experience!

Yes! We have availability for the White Cottage, the Lodge, and the Farmhouse for July 9-12. Rare weekend booking opportunity. Book soon to ensure you don't miss out!

Availability you can't pass up!

July Long Weekend

We have all buildings available for the Canada Day long weekend! Available from Thursday July 1 to Monday July 5. Don't miss this opportunity to ring in the summer in an unforgettable way!

This is the perfect opportunity to experience Canada Day at Fort William, former Hudson's Bay Trading Post and beachfront tavern renowned for its fireworks and good times—only 10 miles downriver from Oiseau Bay and accessible by car as well.

Labour Day Long Weekend

Traditionally the best weather long weekend of the summer, we still have room for you to show the summer out in style! We can accommodate 4 smaller groups or one large group of up to 28 from Saturday, September 4 to Monday, September 6.
